The programme included a pie-eating match, three-legged race, wheelbarrow rice and a chase after a greased pig, running, jumping and sparring.

The best part of these games came near being spoiled by his Figship. "This weaking, this flower," tumbled off the Cob Pock into the Grisk yesterday, and but for the frantic efforts of some of the Jack tars he would have drowned. He was rescued, squealing and very wet, to meet another fate.

And Everybedy Ents.

From the President of these United States down to the ragged tatterdemailan nobody need fail of his Thanksgiving dinner to-day. President Harrison will eat a knode Island turkey raised by Horace Nee, who has selected the White House turkey for many years.

Clear skies; a cold, yellow sun; crisp, dry and bracing air; tooting dry and hard.

These are the conditions for a perfect hanksgiving Day, and New York-is certainly lessel with such conditions to-day.

A November sun, a sun for light, not armth, reigned in a heaven of palest blue, ecked with only Bacclest cloudlets, and the thosphere was simply exhilarating in its Hecis.

The city arcse late, for it was a holiday.

Exchanges, banks, public offices and the shopping districts were descreted. Doors were closed; from shutters pulled down. It was a lot doing sumptuously is not the exclusions to the exclusions of the poor.

The day is being observed on field and frees and carreit, as well as in the sanctuaries of the metropolis. There is prayer and reflection and religious dexistion, but there is inside and inn, too, and tack will be feastiagliated and fun, too, and tack will be feastiagliated and fun, losting far into the night.
